Hi David,

Thanks for the update. It's good to be back (and agreed, hopefully for a while)! Please let us know if you receive any kind of a response from the developer or their representatives.

Best wishes,

Renee,

You are correct. Unfortunately, our City team has not been able to discuss this project having had to postpone a few meetings over the past couple of weeks. Nonetheless, I (and my boss) have conveyed to the developer's attorney that we do not see a way through this for residential occupancy since the City will not issue permits. We are concurrently waiting for their response.

BTW – Welcome back (hopefully, for a while).

Good Morning Dave,

I've been looking over some of my notes for this site. We last talked on December 12th with you and other representatives for the City of Milwaukee to discuss the path forward for the Barclay site. It sounded on that call as if the City was close to making a determination and would notify the developers for that project via email within the next week. It does not appear that we have any records of that communication on our end. When you have the opportunity, can you please confirm if you've made a determination and notified the developers of the Barclay project? If so, can you please provide a copy of that communication for our records?

Thanks,

Renee Wawczak, P.G.

Thank you for the email Renee. We continue to have internal discussions between City Health, Neighborhood Services, and City Development. The developer has been trying to set up a time to sit down with City Development (my agency) to discuss options but the date of the meeting has yet to be set up. Meanwhile, I have asked our City Attorney's Office to work towards a response to the developer based on health issues rather than financing so each department's answers are consistent; otherwise, nothing more to report.

Hi David,

I am following up on our previous conversation. You had indicated that you were going to further discuss your concerns about the Barclay site and let me know your thoughts for moving forward. Have you made any additional progress in these discussions?

Thanks,
